ABOUT THE COLLECTION

Administrative History: Edited transcripts of the civil war-era letters were published in The Land and the People (Columbus, Ga : Brentwood Christian Press, 1986) [Readings in Bulloch County history, book 5].

Scope and Content: This collection consists of photocopied letters of the Keller family of Bulloch County, Georgia from 1862-1903. Most letters are addressed to Mary Annis Keller (later Hodges), from cousins serving in the Confederate Army as well as later letters from other family members. Also included are muster rolls of various Confederate units, 1860 census records of Chatham and Effingham Counties, and a chart showing the value of Confederate money to gold, 1861-May 1866.

System of Arrangement: This collection is organized by material type and further chronologically.

Acquisitions Info: Gift of Martha Hodges Anderson, 1986.
